This morning, we set off on our outback journey from Kings Canyon to Uluru. We'll stop at Curtain Springs for a guided tour and lunch, with the stunning view of Mt Conner as the backdrop.

We arrive at Sails in the Desert around 2pm. There's time for a swim, a self-guided tour of the Gallery of Central Australia, featuring around 80 works of Indigenous art or listen to the enchanting sounds of the didgeridoo during a complimentary workshop.

This evening will be a magical experience. We take the short transfer from the resort to a remote desert location with majestic views of Uluru. As the sun sets, savour a selection of outback canapés with sparkling wine or beer on an exclusive dune top, as our host provides insight into the light installation that awaits. ## DAY 6 – TUESDAY – ULURU SUNRISE AND KATA TJUṬA

An early start this morning, to witness a spectacular Uluru sunrise. Enjoy a boxed breakfast as we travel to the sunrise viewing area, Talinguru Nyakunyjaku, and watch the first rays of sunlight creep across the desert plains. You'll welcome a cup of hot tea or coffee as the morning sun slowly changes the colour of Uluru. We then head for the 36 mystical domes known as Kata Tjuṭa to marvel at the panoramic views of the southern side before arriving at the base of Walpa Gorge. Spend time exploring the gorge and the unusual conglomerate rock formations. The walking trail through Walpa Gorge follows the natural creek between two of the tallest domes of Kata Tjuṭa.

This afternoon you'll have spare time to enjoy the complimentary activities available at Ayers Rock Resort. Learn about Australian and local bush tucker and how, for many centuries, local Indigenous groups would hunt, gather and prepare these bush foods with the Bush Food Experience. You might like to take a scenic helicopter flight and experience Uluru and Kata Tjuṭa from the air – a once in a lifetime experience (own expense and must be pre-booked).

Late this afternoon, we head out to see the inspiring red-hued sedimentary rock domes of Kata Tjuṭa at sunset. They are thought to have originally been one huge piece of rock, much like Uluru, that has weathered over millions of years to become an intriguing series of individual formations. As evening approaches, each passing minute brings something new as the domes continue to change colour with the setting sun. Sip on sparkling wine while enjoying deluxe canapés as the sun slowly sinks on the horizon. Return to the resort for an evening at leisure.

Tonight, a very special evening awaits. Entered into the Australian Tourism Hall of Fame, Sounds of Silence offers the best of the Red Centre distilled into four breathtaking hours. Your evening begins with canapés and chilled sparkling wine upon a dune top overlooking the Uluru-Kata Tjuṭa National Park. As the sun sets and darkness falls, listen to the haunting sound of a didgeridoo and join your fellow travellers for an unforgettable dining experience. Enjoy a selection of Australian wine and beer while the first course is served to your table. As the night sky twinkles to life, you will be welcomed to an interactive chef's station to choose from a bush tucker inspired menu incorporating native bush ingredients.
